2. Characteristic spirit and general objectives of the school

St. Multose National School is a co-educational primary school with a Church of Ireland ethos under the patronage of the Bishop of Cork, Cloyne and Ross.

"Church of Ireland/Anglican" ethos in the context of a Church of Ireland primary school means the ethos and characteristic spirit of the Anglican Christian tradition. This seeks to nurture and encourage the formation of the intellectual, academic, sporting, social and religious abilities of each child within the framework of the community of faith. A Church of Ireland ethos encourages intellectual diversity of thought and encourages the individual to seek to understand themselves, the world around them and the connection between the world and the Divine. This understanding of school ethos promotes pluralism in thought and living, in the context of a Christian school community. Drawing on its Anglican tradition, the Church of Ireland School encourages home/family involvement, highlighting the importance of the family/home in the social and emotional development of the child, and more broadly, the community of the school and church.

In accordance with S.15 (2) (b) of the Education Act, 1998 the Board of Management of St. Multose National School shall uphold, and be accountable to the patron for so upholding, the characteristic spirit of the school as determined by the cultural, educational, moral, religious, social, linguistic and spiritual values and traditions which inform and are characteristic of the objectives and conduct of the school.

St. Multose National School is a school whose objective is to provide education in an environment which promotes certain religious values and does not discriminate in relation to the admission of a student who has applied for a place in the school in accordance with section 7A of the Equal Status Act 2000.

iii. All denominational schools

St. Multose National School is a school whose objective is to provide education in an environment which promotes certain religious values and does not discriminate where it refuses to admit as a student a person who is not of Church of Ireland faith and it is proved that the refusal is essential to maintain the ethos of the school

iv. Schools with special education class(es)

St. Multose National School is a school which has established a class, with the approval of the Minister for Education and Skills, which provides an education exclusively for students with a category or categories of special educational needs specified by the Minister and may refuse to admit to the class a student who does not have the category of needs specified.

4. Categories of Special Educational Needs catered for in the special class

St. Multose National School, with the approval of the Minister for Education, has established one class to provide an education exclusively for students with Autism Spectrum Disorder within the mild range of learning disability. The maximum number of pupils in each class is six.

In determining the level of admissions to the ASD Classes, the Board shall take account of Department of Education ('DES') regulations/circulars in relation to staffing, class size and pupil teacher ratios; health and safety requirements; it shall also have regard to issues such as physical space, age range within the class, behavioural needs, the number of pupils expected to leave the class, the size of classrooms/play areas/school premises, the deployment of teachers and the resources of the School.

The following criteria will apply when making an application this class:

1. Each child must have a full current Psychological & Cognitive Assessment, which must specify a diagnosis of 'Autism' i.e. D.S.M. 1V & V OR I.C.D diagnostic criteria and a recommendation for a special class placement in a mainstream school from such a professional report. Such a recommendation must be furnished by a professionally recognised clinical psychologist. These reports must be recent and cannot be dated more than 18 months prior to the proposed admission date. Parents may be asked to furnish further up-to-date reports.
2. A fully completed, signed and dated application form for enrolment has been submitted to the school by the Parents and a vacancy exists in the ASD Class. If the application form is not fully completed, and/or all the required reports have not been furnished, the application will be deemed incomplete.
3. If offered a place, the Parents must confirm in writing within 7 calendar days that the place is being accepted. If this confirmation is not received within that time, the school will take it that the place is not being accepted and the place will be reallocated.
4. Places are allocated in the ASD Class on the condition that the appropriate resources are provided and continue to be provided, by the NCSE and the DES.
5. If the ASD class is oversubscribed, places will be allocated as set out in Section 6.2 below provided in the first instance that the applicant meets all of the criteria listed above. A waiting list will be maintained for the duration of the academic year only, for which the initial application was made.

4.1 Inclusion

It is hoped that pupils enrolled in the ASD class will experience meaningful inclusion during their time in St. Multose NS. Inclusion of pupils with ASD into mainstream classes for some subjects will be considered on an individual basis. The provision of inclusion for the pupils is dependent on personnel resources and accommodation and on their priority needs.

The child's first year in the ASD Class will be used to:

- Assess the child's educational, social and emotional needs
- Develop an Individual Education Plan to address identified needs

4.2 Age Gap

- A three-year age gap is the preferred maximum allowed between any two children within each class.

4.3 Discharge from ASD Classes

- Discharge of pupils from the ASD Class will usually take place once they have completed eight years of primary education but no later than the academic year of their fourteenth birthday.
- Discharge from the ASD Class may also happen if a pupil is fully integrated into the mainstream school.

4.4 Placement Review

Regular reviews of a school's capability to continue to meet the pupil's needs in a way that ensures that the pupil develops to his/her potential may be necessary. Parents will be kept fully informed of any concerns that might arise at the earliest opportunity.

- Should these concerns continue the school shall request that a multi-disciplinary team assessment be carried out to determine the best options open to the pupil.
- If the School and its related professional support team were of the opinion that the pupil's needs were not being met in the class, in consultation with the pupil's parents/guardians, an alternative placement would need to be considered in the best interest of the child.
- The final decision rests with the Board of Management.

5. Admission of Students

This school shall admit each student seeking admission except where –

- a) the school is oversubscribed (please see section 6 below for further details)

Where the number of Special Class Applicants exceed the number of places available in the class, first preference will be given to pupils already attending St. Multose National School, where a transfer will take place from mainstream to the special class if criteria have been satisfied.
