

School Newsletter

Friday, 14th March

This week's news...

- We had a St. Patrick's Day parade today at school! See pictures below.
- We raised a total sum of €87 for South Sudan Schools. A huge thank you to everyone for their donations.
- Kinsale St. Patrick's Day Children's Art Competition - Well done and congratulations to Kiera for winning 1st place in the 5th class category, to Dale for winning 1st Runner up in the 3rd class category and to Ryan for being highly commended. The presentation of prizes will take place at 1:30pm on St Patrick's Day at the Tourist Office in Kinsale.
- Here is a link to Louie's report in the Irish Times:
<https://www.irishtimes.com/sport/rugby/2025/03/09/tap-and-go-competition-winner-easterby-bemoans-irelands-failure-to-take-their-opportunities/>
- We say farewell and go raibh maith agat to Ms Walsh as she finishes up with us today.

Photos of our St. Patrick's Day School Parade

Some photographs of Ms Fitzgerald's Class on their Field Trip!

Shared reading – the senior pupils listen to and read to Ms Fitzgerald's Class every Friday. The children love it!

World Book Day Celebrations! We had a myriad of characters at assembly. The principal was arrested by a policeman.! Matilda conjures up her magical power to defeat Trunchball, while Willie Wonka employs Spiderman, a pirate and a robin to work in his chocolate factory.

Next week...

- Monday – St Patrick’s Day – No School
- Beimid ag ceiliúradh 'Seachtain na Gaeilge' an tseachtain seo chugainn agus ní feidir linn fanacht! Next week we will celebrate Seachtain na Gaeilge and we cannot wait! All pupils from Junior Infants up to sixth class will make a huge effort to speak Irish all week. The children from 4th, 5th and 6^t will perform ‘The Haka’ as Gaeilge for all the local schools in the library on Wednesday. We will also host a ‘tráth na gcéist’ on Thursday in assembly. We will also learn the Irish dance ‘Cur Crúb ar an Asal’ and have a céilí on Friday!
- On Wednesday, Kinsale Fire Brigade will visit Ms Kingston’s class and give a talk on fire safety! The children might even get to sit in the fire engine!
- On Thursday, we have PE specialist teachers from UCC visiting to give a whole-school PE lesson.
- On Friday, tennis lessons with Ms Bolster will commence for all classes.

Enjoy the bank holiday weekend everyone and see you on Tuesday.